Summary of Legislation: This bill provides that a school employer is not subject to the collective bargaining agreement when hiring certificated employees to fill positions in shortage areas determined by the State Board of Education.

Effective Date: July 1, 2007.

Explanation of State Expenditures:

Explanation of State Revenues:

Explanation of Local Expenditures: The bill could make it easier for school to hire teachers in shortage areas as determined by the State Board of Education. The school corporation would be able to pay a certified employee in a shortage area more or less than the salary schedule in the collective bargaining agreement. Any additional expenditures would have to be within the current school revenue sources.
